United States announces $15.8 million in additional assistance to Kyrgyzstan

The U.S. government is pleased to announce a new $15.8 million program supporting community economic development and improved stability in the south of Kyrgyzstan. The program will complement current U.S. government assistance to develop capabilities of Kyrgyzstan's governance and security institutions, economic development and job creation, expanding citizen access to information, improving education and leadership opportunities for youth and involving civil society and community leaders to address social problems and local conflicts. The United States remains committed to helping the people of Kyrgyzstan consolidate their democracy, jumpstart their economy, and maintain peace and security.
